Susan Frye

Adjunct Instructor
Landscape Architecture Program
505.362.4112
sfrye@unm.edu

Susan Frye is an Adjunct Instructor in the Landscape Architecture Program of the School of Architecture and Planning at the University of New Mexico. She holds a Bachelor of Fine Arts from the Minneapolis College of Art and Design and a Master of Landscape Architecture from the University of New Mexico. Susan is also a principal of Lee Gamelsky Architects P.C. in Albuquerque. She is a member of ASLA.

Her interests are the art of landscape design, contemporary regional design, and urban design. She teaches first year design studio, concentrating on the development of the design process.