

Gabriella Gutierrez, Associate Professor
School of Architecture and Planning

Contact Information:

Email: ggutierr@unm.edu
Office: Room 203 Pearl Hall
Telephone: 505-277-1971
Fax: 505-277-0076

Education:

Master of Architecture (1988)
Bachelor of Arts in Architecture (1985)

Columbia University, New York
University of New Mexico, Albuquerque

Academic Appointments:

Associate Professor (1998-Present)
Visiting Critic (1997)

UNM School of Architecture and Planning
The Catholic University of America, Washington, D.C.
Summer Institute of Architecture
University of Houston College of Architecture

Assistant Professor (1991–1998)

Administrative Appointments:

Associate Dean (2001–2008)
Interim Architecture Program Director (2006)

UNM School of Architecture and Planning
UNM School of Architecture and Planning

Professional Practice:

Registered Architect in Texas (1993–2012)
Associate (2002–2005), Morris Gutierrez Rogers Architects, Houston, Texas
Principal (1992–2001), Morris Gutierrez Architects, Houston, Texas
Architectural Intern, I.M. Pei and Partners, New York City, New York (1989–1991)
Architectural Intern, Antoine Predock Architects, Albuquerque, New Mexico (1983–1987 part-time)

Publications and Grants:

Papers and projects published in various Association of Collegiate Schools of Architecture (ACSA) Proceedings, design projects published in Architecture, Progressive Architecture and Texas Architect magazines, articles published in Cite the Architecture and Design Review of Houston, and citations in various articles and local newspapers. Several research and installation projects funded by grants from universities, private sources, and foundations such as the Menil Collection and Anchorage Foundation in Houston. University grants received for research on school-based health care centers in Houston, and in Albuquerque. Most recently assisted Des Moines School District in New Mexico on a successful grant for $500,000 to construct a new school-based health care center on its campus – expected completion date of July 2013.

Service:

Participated in various university and school committees, task forces, AIA awards juries at the regional level, boards of non-profit organizations, ACSA conferences as moderator, panelist, topic chair, and paper referee, and have been an invited lecturer and juror to various architecture programs including.

Recognition:

Recipient of design awards while principal in the firm of Morris Gutierrez Architects, Houston, Texas 1992-2002, ACSA/AIAS New Faculty Teaching Award in 1996, AIA Houston Educator Award and Tau Sigma Delta Silver Medal for teaching excellence, nominated to serve on the Texas Historical Commission's State Board of Review from 1994 to 1998, invited juror for the IHP international student design competition held in Sweden, elected Secretary of the Association of Collegiate Schools of Architecture, and a UNM Regents Lecturer recipient for 2012 to 2015. Additionally, students under my direction have received recognition for their design work locally, regionally, nationally, and internationally through competitions and exhibitions.