News + Features

Congratulations to SHoP Architects of New York City, winner of 2018 Jeff Harnar Award for Contemporary Architecture for their expansion and thoughtful re-imagination of SITE Santa Fe, a contemporary art institution located in Santa Fe, New Mexico.

The winner of Jeff Harnar Unbuilt Architecture Award went to University of New Mexico Master of Architecture student Darby Prendergast, for his theoretical project "Vertical Cemetery for Extinct Species."

The winner of Unbuilt Landscape Architecture category was Surroundings Studio, for their project "Murchison Rogers Park," sited in El Paso, Texas.

UNM CRP recently developed an articulation agreement alongside Navajo Technical University of Crownpoint New Mexico. The agreement will allow student involved in NTUs Building Information Modeling Associate of Applied Science degree program to transfer directly into the four-year BAEPD degree program offered by the UNM SA+P Community + Regional Planning department.

Prof. Roger Schluntz, FAIA, has been recently appointed by the American Institute of Architects to a three-year term with the International Competitions Commission (ICC), one of four different commissions of the International Union of Architects (UIA) that address specific issues facing the architecture profession globally. Schluntz is one of two architects representing North and South America - Region III of the UIA.
