

World renowned Albuquerque architect, Antoine Predock, has gifted his former residence and professional studio to the UNM School of Architecture + Planning.

The UNM School of Architecture + Planning will create the Predock Center for Design and Research in the endowed spaces, which include Predock's design studio, workshop and gallery spaces.

Upcoming Events

UNM School of Architecture + Planning and the department of Community + Regional Planning held a public screening of the documentary film, Una Nueva Tierra.

This documentary follows three families living on the Pajarito Mesa, west of Albuquerque.

Public screening at the Guild Cinema, Nob Hill Albuquerque | Thursday, Nov. 16 | 5 & 7 pm

The UNM department of Landscape Architecture will host a UNM Academic Program Review from November 13-15.

This is a review UNM conducts with all units on a nine or ten year cycle. It is a 3 day visit and is similar to an accreditation with outside reviewers.

News + Features

Roger Schluntz, professor and former dean of The University of New Mexico School of Architecture and Planning, was one of only 10 U.S. delegates representing the American Institute of Architects (AIA) at the XXVII World Congress and Assembly of the International Union of Architects (Union Internationale des Architectes, or UIA).
